

LONDON, ENGLAND > SUMMER ABROAD

The London Internship Program offers a semester of study and work in England's exciting capital city. This program combines a professional internship with coursework that examines a particular academic area in the context of Great Britain's history, culture, and society and its role in modern Europe. Courses in each academic area are taught by selected British faculty exclusively to students enrolled in the Boston University program.

Upon successful completion of a semester, students earn 12 Boston University credits.

London Internship Program

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

The First Six Weeks (Core Phase)

Students take one core course in their academic area to prepare for their internships, and one elective course. Each student also meets with the program's internship placement advisors to refine his or her area of work placement according to ability, professional goals, experience, and work habits.

The Final Six Weeks (Placement Phase)

Students participate in London's work life through assigned internships that complement their particular academic concentration and personal goals. Students work full-time, four days a week.

Internship areas include advertising, marketing, and public relations; arts and arts administration; business and economics; film, radio, and television; hospitality and tourism; journalism; management and finance; politics and international relations; prelaw; psychology and social policy; and theater studies.

HOUSING

Students live in furnished apartments with other students in Boston University's London programs. The apartments are within walking distance of the London office. They vary in size (from two to 13 occupants), configuration, and style of decoration, but most consist of shared bedrooms, bath/shower room, and a living/dining room with cooking facilities. Telephone and Internet access is provided in each of the apartments.
