

LONDON, ENGLAND > STUDY ABROAD

The London College of General Studies Program (CGS) provides a unique opportunity for first-semester CGS sophomores to study in London. Over the course of the 16 week program, students will take the CGS core curriculum along with one four-credit elective and a three-credit British culture course. Excursions to museums, and historical sites will complement the curriculum. Upon successful completion of a semester, students earn 19 Boston University credits.

London College of General Studies Fall Program

COURSES

The first six weeks are spent taking a natural sciences, humanities and British culture class. In the last nine weeks, students continue their British culture and humanities classes along with a social science course and an elective. All courses carry four credits unless otherwise noted.

REQUIRED COURSES

- CGS BC 201 British Culture and Identity (3 cr.)
- CGS HU 201 Humanities III
- CGS NS 201 Biological Science I
- CGS SS 201 Social Science III
