Arezzo Physical Theater Program

Boston University Study Abroad, in collaboration with the College of Fine Arts School of Theater, is pleased to offer a semester abroad in Arezzo, Italy. Boston University students can study at the Accademia dell'Arte as an integral part of their academic program.

The Accademia dell'Arte is an internationally recognized institution providing students of theater, music and dance the opportunity for an intensive semester of study with world-renowned masters of their craft. The first half of the program is comprised of daily training in movement, extended vocal techniques and Italian language. Intensive workshops follow and entail studies in Commedia, and an introduction to performance topics including mask-making and clown. www.dell-arte.org

In addition to local excursions, students participate in a group field trip to one of Italy's major cities. Students may also have the opportunity to see professional performances, as well as present their own work generated throughout the semester. Upon successful completion of the program students will earn 16 Boston University credits.

HOUSING

Students live in Accademia dell'Arte sponsored accommodations in the Villa Godiola Residence Halls. The villa includes double and triple rooms with private bathrooms, a large rehearsal hall, a "black box" type theater space, internet point and wireless, a large formal garden and enclosed grounds. It was originally built in 1391 and has an extraordinary view of the Tuscan countryside and is a short walk to the historic center of Arezzo. Meals are provided on-site whenever classes are in session.
