

LOS ANGELES, USA > SUMMER ABROAD

Los Angeles Film and Television Internship-Only Program

This Los Angeles summer internship program option offers undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to spend 10 weeks interning in the fields of film and television. There are no classes offered in this program. Instead, students intern full-time for networks, studios, or other companies that specialize in film or television production, development, casting, or related areas. Not available to current AD/PR students.

This internship-only program gives students the possibility to work professionally in the heart of the film and television industries. Upon successful completion of the internship, students earn four Boston University credits.

INTERNSHIPS

Internship placements are contingent on the student's past experience and available opportunities so flexibility is essential. Recent internship placements have included CSI, The Disney Channel, E! Entertainment, The Ellen DeGeneres Show, Fox Home Entertainment, Fox Movie Channel, HBO Films, Jimmy Kimmel Live, Lionsgate, Panavision, Sony Television, and The Weinstein Company.

DIRECTOR, LOS ANGELES PROGRAMS

Bill Linsman is an international television commercial director. He holds a BA in Economics from the University of California and an MFA in Cinema from the University of Southern California. Currently he is an Associate Professor in the College of Communication at Boston University, teaching film production and direction.

ADMISSIONS

- Open to competitive juniors, seniors, and graduate students.
- The internship placements are rigorous and demand a serious commitment on the part of the student. Applicants should demonstrate their level of motivation and eligibility for such an internship in their personal statement.
- Refer to our policy on eligibility/admissions at www.bu.edu/abroad/admissions
