

DRESDEN, GERMANY > STUDY ABROAD

REQUIRED COURSE

Students enroll in the following four-credit course.

CAS DR 300 Intensive German Language and Culture

ELECTIVE COURSES

Students enroll in three courses offered through the Technische Universität Dresden. Courses may be taught in English, German or German for foreigners.

Dresden German Studies Program

This program is designed for students who wish to enroll directly in a German university, and who want to take advantage of the wide range of courses offered by Technische Universität Dresden. The Dresden German Studies Program gives students a great opportunity to gain insight into the academic culture in Germany, to improve their language proficiency skills and to study and live among German and international students. Upon successful completion of the semester students earn 16 to 20 Boston University credits.

HOST INSTITUTION

The Technische Universität Dresden (TUD) is one of the oldest and most prestigious technical universities in Germany. Its name now only partially describes its mission, however. Since German reunification, the TUD has doubled in size by incorporating a full array of humanities, social sciences, and “pure” science departments as well. The Technical University of Dresden was cited by the government of the Federal Republic of Germany for excellence in the fields of Bioengineering and Biomedicine—the only university in Germany to receive this highly competitive honor in both fields. www.tu-dresden.de

HOUSING

Program participants live together in university dormitories. Students receive meal stipends, which may be used to buy food at student cafeterias, or students can shop at grocery stores or markets in Dresden and prepare their meals in the dormitory kitchens.

Excursions

Excursions to nearby Berlin, Prague, Meissen, Leipzig and other exciting cultural activities are included in the program.
