

LONDON, ENGLAND > STUDY ABROAD

The London College of General Studies Program (CGS) provides a unique opportunity for first-semester CGS sophomores to study in London. Over the course of the 16 week program, students will take the CGS core curriculum along with one four-credit elective and a three-credit British culture course. Excursions to museums, and historical sites will complement the curriculum. Upon successful completion of a semester, students earn 19 Boston University credits.

HOUSING

Students live in furnished apartments with other students in BU Study Abroad London's programs. The apartments are within walking distance of the BU London Academic Center in South Kensington. They vary in size, configuration, and style of decoration. Most students (95%+) live in shared bedrooms, often in bunk beds, with ensuite shower room, a shared kitchen and living/dining room area. British Programs staff and RAs live in BU's building along with the students, helping to ensure a high level of maintenance and security. There is WiFi access in the residences.
