

PADUA, ITALY > SUMMER ABROAD

Students enroll in two courses, for a total of eight credits. The course selections include Italian language courses from the elementary to the advanced levels as well as liberal arts electives taught in English or Italian, depending on the course. Classes are taught at Boston University's Padua Academic Center in the town's historic center, by local or visiting Boston University faculty. Excursions complement the coursework. Upon successful completion of the program students earn eight Boston University credits.

Padua Italian Studies Program

The Padua Italian Studies Program offers six weeks of intensive language and cultural study in a historic and lively university town, located 20 miles west of Venice.
