Course Objective

The course explores how Britain created a unique political and cultural identity, and the way this impacted on the rest of the world. No prior knowledge of British history is required.

Course Overview

This course examines the evolving politics of the state in England – and later Britain – since 1534 and considers how these shifts were shaped by social and economic changes. The impact of these interrelated processes on the making of a distinct cultural heritage will also be assessed. Britain’s architecture, literature and art will be considered in the context of who pays for the specific works, from the palaces, stately homes and oil portraits in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, via the rise of the novel in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, to the consumers of popular culture created in the age of the welfare state since 1945. The impact of ‘Britishness’ overseas will also assessed.

Methodology

The course is taught in ten classes, followed by a written examination lasting two hours. Most classes begin with a formal presentation after which there is a discussion period based on an assigned reading, usually from the course set text. The presentations take a thematic approach, while the set text readings proceed chronologically. Documentaries – and one ‘sitcom’ from the 1980s – will also be used to support student learning. There are three guided field trips as part of the classes. Students are required to attend all sessions and participate in discussions. This aspect will account for 10% of the final grade. A further 10% will be awarded for a class presentation based on the visit to the National Portrait Gallery. A 2000-word essay (about 8 typed pages, double-spaced in 12 point font) must be submitted to the instructor at the start of class 8 (a further 40% of the grade). This will be graded and returned with written feedback to students at the start of class 10. In the end-of-session examination (worth 40%) students must answer two essay-type questions from a selection covering all aspects of the course. No notes will be allowed in the examination room.
Grading

Please refer to the Academic Handbook for detailed grading criteria and policies on plagiarism: http://www.bu.edu/london/current-semester

*Final Grades are subject to deductions by the Academic Affairs Office due to unauthorised absences.

Attendance Policy

Classes

All Boston University London Programme students are expected to attend each and every class session, seminar, and field trip in order to fulfill the required course contact hours and receive course credit. Any student that has been absent from two class sessions (whether authorised or unauthorised) will need to meet with the Directors to discuss their continued participation on the programme. This may result in the student having to take a medical leave of absence from the programme or withdraw from the programme.

Authorised Absence:

Students who expect to be absent from any class should notify a member of Academic Affairs and complete an Authorized Absence Approval Form 10 working days in advance of the class date (except in the case of absence due to illness for more than one day. In this situation students should submit the Authorised Absence Approval Form with the required doctor’s note as soon as possible). Please note: Submitting an Authorised Absence Approval Form does not guarantee an authorised absence

Students may apply for an authorised absence only under the following circumstances:

- Illness (first day of sickness): If a student is too ill to attend class, the student must phone the BU London Student Affairs Office (who will in turn contact the student’s lecturer).
- Illness (multiple days): If a student is missing more than one class day due to illness, the student must call into the BU London Student Affairs Office each day the student is ill. Students must also provide the Student Affairs office with a completed Authorised Absence Approval Form and sick note from a local doctor excusing their absence from class.
- Important placement event that clashes with a class (verified by internship supervisor)
- Special circumstances which have been approved by the Directors (see note below).

The Directors will only in the most extreme cases allow students to leave the programme early or for a significant break.

Unauthorised Absence:

Any student to miss a class due to an unauthorised absence will receive a 4% grade penalty to their final grade for the course whose class was missed. This grade penalty will be applied by the Academic Affairs office to the final grade at the end of the course. As stated above, any student that has missed two classes will need to meet with the Directors to discuss their participation on the programme as excessive absences may result in a ‘Fail’ in the class and therefore expulsion from the programme.

Lateness

Students arriving more than 15 minutes after the posted class start time will be marked as late. Any student with irregular class attendance (more than two late arrivals to class) will be required to meet with the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs and if the lateness continues, may have his/her final grade penalised.

Terms and Conditions

Failure to produce essays at the allotted time may result in the lowering of the grade. Punctuality for class is essential.

I will make some time available in each session for students to raise questions etc. Should students wish to discuss matters with me in person I will also be available during the break mid-lecture and at the end of class. Alternatively, please feel free to e-mail me with questions. If you have problems with the availability of reading materials (all of which should be in the library) please contact me either through the Academic Affairs Office or via e-mail.
