</tr>
<tr>
<td>COURSE DESCRIPTION</td>
<td>It is a course for students with no prior knowledge of Italian. In the course the students will study linguistic structures, vocab and communicative functions. Students will also be engaged in the cultural observation on the local environment which will be discussed in class. The course includes: on site classes which are task based activities which imply a cooperation among students whose main focus is the practice and the development of the language in use in real life contexts; events and visits which are mandatory. Homework is assigned and checked regularly in class and will focus on the functions and linguistic structures presented in class and practiced in real life situations.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LEARNING STATEMENT</td>
<td>Weekly the course consists of four 50 minutes contact hours and requires 4-6 student effort hours for successful completion of the course.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TEACHING METHODOLOGY</td>
<td>The course will develop above all the ability of comprehension (written and oral), the linguistic production, mainly in the oral use of the language, and the oral interaction. It is a course in an immersion context abroad which aims at presenting communicative functions, grammar and vocabulary in real life contexts. Task based activities and assignments have a key role in the practice of Italian. The didactic approach implies a community of practice and learning from the first day of class. The course therefore relies on each class member to be prepared and to contribute to in-class activities and discussions. As a community of learning it is course members’ responsibility for ensuring a positive learning environment, which is achieved through mutual respect and tolerance. All topics (linguistic structures, communicative functions, vocabulary) may be presented differently as to their scheduling in the calendar (see below) according to the students needs and response.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>COURSE MATERIALS</td>

AIMS OF THE COURSE

The course is comparable to a A1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). As CEFR state, at this beginner level, students can interact in a simple way, ask and answer simple questions about themselves, where they live, people they know, and things they have, initiate and respond to simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics, rather than relying purely on a very finite rehearsed, lexically-organized repertoire of situation-specific phrases. Globally, students can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. They can introduce themselves and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where they live, people they know and things they have. They can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

PROJECTS AND GRADED ASSIGNMENTS

In addition to homework, the students’ progress will be evaluated with:
- 2 language texts to be done in class,
- 2 written composition to be done at home and sent via email to the teacher not later than 6:00 p.m. of the due date.
- 2 oral presentations in class
- 1 mid-term exam, written and oral
- 1 final exam, written and oral.

BU POLICIES

Examinations
All academic commitments must be completed before you leave the site; no incompletes are permitted. Students who do not complete a course on time will be given an F.
Students are required to sit their examinations on the dates, at the times, and in the same classroom as the other students in their class.
If a student is ill or has another extenuating circumstance which causes the student to be absent from a scheduled examination, he/she must provide appropriate documentation and receive approval from the Director.

Attendance
Students should note that attendance will be taken into account by faculty. Boston University Padua students are expected to attend each and every class session, tutorial, on-site class, internship work appointment, and activity required for the class as indicated in the syllabus. Any student with irregular class attendance may have his/her final grade penalized.

Absences
Unjustified absences from class, and any class related activity, will affect the students’ participation grade, which will be lowered by one letter grade for each absence.

Absence for Religious Reasons
According to Chapter 151C of the General Laws, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, any student in an educational or vocational training institution, other than a religious or denominational educational or vocational training institution, who is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to attend classes or to participate in any examination, study, or work requirement on a particular day, shall be excused from any such examination or study or work requirement, and shall be provided with an opportunity to make up such examination, study, or work requirement that may have been missed because of such absence on any particular day; provided, however, that such makeup examinations or work shall not create an unreasonable burden upon such school. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to the said students such opportunity. No adverse or prejudicial effects shall result to students because of their availing themselves of the provisions of this section. Students who have questions about practicing their religion while abroad should contact Boston University Study Abroad.

Lateness
Students arriving more than 10 minutes after the posted class start time will be marked as late. Being late three times is equivalent to missing one class.

Late Assignments
Students are expected to turn in all course assignments on time as stated in each course syllabus. Late assignments will not be accepted and missed assignments will automatically be awarded an F. Please note that all coursework must be completed by the end of the program.

Plagiarism
Simply stated, plagiarism is taking another’s work and presenting it as your own. Definitions of plagiarism frequently include terms such as ‘theft’ or ‘steal’. Plagiarism is, in fact, intellectual theft. It is one of the most serious forms of academic misconduct. Plagiarism committed by a student will certainly result in course failure and may result in suspension or dismissal. For more details please see Boston University’s Code of Student Responsibilities: http://www.bu.edu/lifebook/universitypolicies/policies-code.html

Disability accommodations
If you are a student with a disability or believe you might have a disability that requires accommodations, please contact the Office for Disability Services (ODS) at 617-353-3658 to coordinate any reasonable accommodation requests. For more information, please visit: http://www.bu.edu/disability

Interruption of program or early departure
Only in serious cases – mostly related to medical emergencies – the Director will allow a student to take a significant break during the program or to leave before its official conclusion. Official written approval must be received by the Director.

Academic Advice
The Director and Assistant Academic Director serve as the head of the faculty and as academic advisors. The Director/Assistant Academic Director is available on an appointment basis to assist students with academic issues. For academic advice regarding students’ home institutions’ policies and transfer credit information, non-Boston students should also contact their school’s academic advisors.

Tutorials
BU faculty are available by appointment for students who may need support in the learning process. We strongly encourage you to take advantage of this resource. Students in the past found it very useful to succeed. Students who receive a C on a test must seek support from faculty.
