I. COURSE PRESENTATION AND OUTCOMES

This course has three objectives:

1. Students will be able to identify and understand the principal art movements in Paris from 1850 to today, including painting, sculpture, photography, installations, and urbanism. We will give consideration to the historical, economic, and sociocultural contexts of the time period in order to develop a history of "modernity" (in the art historical sense) as Paris defined it, as well as its influence on Western. Three points will be emphasized:
   a. The influence of Parisian architecture and urbanism on modernity.
   b. The place of female artists in modernity.
   c. The reception of Parisian modernity.
2. We will study how Parisian modernity has been interpreted and translated in other parts of the world.
3. Students will develop an understanding of art historical methodology through different exercises: analytic commentary of a work, essay, and review of an exhibition.

The course, including additional seminars and visits, is conducted entirely in French.

Outcomes
General knowledge
By the end of the course, students will have acquired
- a precise knowledge of Modern Art timeline from Realism to contemporary developments;
- the ability to describe and characterize the major movements of Modern and Contemporary Art;
- a knowledge of the major artists’ contributions and key artworks and the ability to recognize those artworks and artists;
- the ability to define in general terms artistic modernity as it was developed in Paris;
- an understanding of Paris’ function as one of the three global capitals of contemporary art and culture (along with New York and London), due to its institutions (such as Centre Pompidou), the number and quality of its art centers and private galleries, and all the artists, French or not, who come from or live in the city;
- the capacity to relate Modern Art theamtics to other issues raised by social sciences (postmodernism, gender studies, globalization, urbanism...);
Art History methodological tools

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

• formally analyze a specific work following a precise art history method (commentaire d’œuvre) defined during the course and applying it to an oral presentation;

• understand and analyze theoretical texts about Modern Art written in English or in French, by identifying their main ideas and implications;

• think critically about exhibitions and analyze how museums write art history and how temporary exhibitions develop specific thematic or present an artist’s work;

• understand the historical reception of works and how modern art has progressively come to occupy a central place, notably through the creation of museums devoted to it.

II. ASSESSMENT AND GRADING

Visits: 10%
During the guided visits to museums and exhibitions, students will be asked questions about the displays: both the works themselves and the setup of the work within the museum or gallery. About 30 minutes of each visit will be dedicated to this exercise, during which students provide written answers.

Oral presentation: 20%
Working in groups of two, students will prepare a 10 minute presentation (including a PowerPoint) on a given work of art, highlighting its principal characteristics and its importance of both the career of its artist and the great movements of art history. The grade will take into account the quality of the presentation and the PowerPoint, the knowledge gained on the artist and the work, the analysis of the work, and the ease and clarity of the oral presentation.

Essay: 30%
Students will visit an exhibition chosen by the professor and write a developed, analytic critique of it in a 5-page paper. The essay also allows students to develop their written French in an academic context and to put into practice techniques and terminology of art criticism in a formal register.

Slide quiz: 10%
Students will identify works studied in class and provide essential details (artist, movement, time period, etc).

Final exam: 20%
The two-part final exam will cover the entirety of the course. It will be comprised of two essays: one on a given work of art (analytical commentary) and one on a given movement or period of the history of modern art.

Participation and preparedness: 10%
This grade takes into account the quality of a student’s presence in class, energy, relevance of comments in class, effort and progress in language proficiency, and attendance and punctuality.

Excused absences = absence for illness excused by the certificate of a French doctor or an internship interview. Documentation to be submitted to Renée the day following the absence.

Tardiness
• The professor reserves the right to not admit a tardy student to class or to count a tardy arrival as either a half or whole unexcused absence.
• Late arrivals to class will impact the class participation grade.
• Late submission of written work will entail a penalty on the assignment grade. Written work submitted more than a week late will not receive credit (grade = F).

Plagiarism - Official BU policy
All students are responsible for having read the Boston University statement on plagiarism, which is available in the Academic Conduct Code. Students are advised that the penalty against students on a Boston University program for cheating on the examinations or for plagiarism may be 'expulsion from the program or the University or such other penalty as may be recommended by the Committee on Student Academic Conduct, subject to approval by the dean'.
