

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

The Los Angeles Internship Program offers three tracks for undergraduate and graduate students: Advertising and Public Relations, Film and Television, and Entertainment Management and Law. Students take three courses and conduct an academic internship. Upon completion of the program students earn 16 Boston University credits.

Advertising and Public Relations

Required Courses:

COM CM 561 HL Survey of Entertainment Promotion
(four credits)

COM CM 561 HW Careers in Hollywood for Advertising and Public Relations (Speaker Series, four credits)

COM CM 471 809/E Internship (four credits)

Elective Courses:

COM FT 552 B1 Professional Production Methods
(four credits)

COM FT 552 A1 Creative Life and Television (four credits)

COM FT 566 A1 The Business of Hollywood (four credits)

Total: 16 credits

Film and Television

Required Courses:

COM FT 566 A1 The Business of Hollywood (four credits)

COM FT 566 B1 Careers in Hollywood (Speaker Series, four credits)

COM FT 493/494, 953/954 Internship in Film or Television
(four credits)

Elective Courses:

COM FT 522 B1 Professional Production Methods
(four credits, course pending approval)

COM FT 552 A1 Creative Life and Television (four credits)

Total: 16 credits

Resident Faculty

Courses are taught by distinguished academics and professionals in the fields of advertising, public relations, film and television, entertainment management and law. Please visit www.bu.edu/abroad to learn more about the faculty.

Housing

Students are housed at the Park LaBrea Apartments in Los Angeles. Students share furnished apartments with other program participants and have full access to the amenities offered through this centrally located apartment complex. Visit www.parklabrea.com for more information.

Admissions

- Undergraduate and graduate students with a minimum 3.0 GPA (in major and overall)
- Please see our website for special application instructions for Acting in Hollywood and The Writer in Hollywood.

Entertainment Management and Law

Required Courses:

MG 435 Entertainment Management (four credits)

LA 430 Entertainment Law (four credits)

EC 497 Internship (four credits)

Elective Courses:

Choose from Film/TV & Advertising/PR course listing

Los Angeles Certificate Program

Eight-credit, non-degree certificate programs are available for post-graduates or interested graduate students with experience in acting and screen or creative writing. Please see www.bu.edu/abroad, Special Programs, Programs for all Students, for more information.

Summer Term

Los Angeles Internship Program: Advertising & Public Relations

Students take two courses and conduct an academic internship. Upon completion of the program students earn 12 Boston University credits.

Internship Only Option (Boston University Students Only)

Undergraduate and graduate students have the opportunity to spend 11 weeks working in the fields of film and television. (four credits)

Program Dates

Fall Semester: early September–mid-December

Spring Semester: mid-January–early May

Summer Term: late May–late July

Application Deadline

Fall Semester: March 15 (Acting/The Writer in Hollywood: April 15)

Spring Semester: Oct. 15 (Acting/The Writer in Hollywood: Nov. 15)

Summer Term: March 1

Program Cost

2007/2008 Tuition and Fees: $21,015 per semester. Cost includes tuition, housing, internship placement, and emergency/travel assistance coverage.

For more information on any of the Boston University Los Angeles programs please contact the Los Angeles office at 323-571-4535.