Request for Deferral of Admission
Boston University Admissions

Instructions

Please read the instructions and policies outlined below before completing this form.

To defer your admission to Boston University for up to one year, please complete and return the Request for Deferral to:

Deferred Admissions Review Committee
Boston University Admissions
881 Commonwealth Avenue, 6th Floor
Boston, MA 02215

If you have not already done so, please submit the required $650 enrollment deposit with this request. If you have any questions, please call the Admissions Office at 617-353-2300 or visit the website at bu.edu/admissions.

Deferral Policies

1. Deferred admission may only be granted to admitted freshman students who have paid the required non-refundable $650 enrollment deposit.
2. Deferred admission may be requested for one or two semesters.
3. Financial aid offers cannot be deferred. Students must reapply for financial aid by the deadlines listed below.
4. Merit scholarship award deferrals may be considered on a case-by-case basis.
5. Arvind and Chandan Nandlal Kilachand Honors College deferrals may be considered on a case-by-case basis.
6. Students planning to complete a post-graduate year of high school are not eligible for deferred admission.
7. Students admitted to the College of General Studies January Boston-London Program may only request a one year deferral to the following January. Students admitted to the School of Theatre in the College of Fine Arts or the Questrom School of Business may only request a one year deferral to begin the following September. Students admitted to the College of General Studies for September are not eligible to defer.
8. Students admitted to one of the accelerated programs in the College of Arts & Sciences may, in some cases, be granted deferred admission status. However, all requests will be forwarded to and decided on by the Accelerated Programs Joint Admissions Committee.
9. Students planning to matriculate at another institution are not eligible for deferral. Any deferred student who matriculates at another institution will lose deferred admission status at Boston University and will forfeit the enrollment deposit. Students who wish to take courses with non-degree status during the period of deferment are limited to two courses per semester. Credit earned at other institutions will be evaluated for transfer credit in accordance with established Boston University policies.
10. Admitted transfer students are not eligible for deferred admission.

Required Credentials

Boston University requires a high school diploma or General Educational Development (GED) diploma for entrance to its undergraduate schools, colleges, and programs unless you are in an approved home-school program. If you have not already submitted your final high school transcript or GED diploma, please request that an official copy be sent as soon as possible. Transcripts of all academic coursework completed subsequent to your original application must be submitted with the request form.
