CALENDAR OF EVENTS | Fall 2014

*Please note later start times on some events!

Tue., Sep. 9
4-6 pm
African American Studies Opening Reception with talk by Dr. Mark Auslander:
“Much has passed I have not told:” African Americans at the Smithsonian, 1848-1990
Anthropologist Prof. Mark Auslander (Central Washington University) shares discoveries from his current research on African Americans at the Smithsonian Institution.
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Fri., Sep. 19
5-6:30 pm
Alumni Weekend Event — “Naming and Remembering: The First Africans in America”
The African American Studies Program, BU Community, and Golden Decade members will be reading the names of the first African Americans who were transported from Atlantic Africa, endured enslavement during the first sixty years in British and Dutch America, and who established the foundations of African Diasporic communities.
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Mon., Oct. 20
5:15 pm*
“Black and Latino Coalitions from the 1960s to Today”
Panel Discussion with Frederick Douglass Opie, Professor of History and Foodways at Babson College, Felix Arroyo, Latino Political Activist, and Hardin Coleman, Dean, BU School of Education.
Location: BU Hillel House, Conservative Chapel, 4th floor 213 Bay State Road, Boston, MA

Tue., Oct. 28
5 pm
“Between Translation and Conversion: Missionary Images of Kongo and Angola”
Cécile Fromont, Assistant Professor of Art History University of Chicago
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Tue., Nov. 11
5 pm
“Engaging Domestic Audiences on US Foreign Policy Issues”
Karen Richardson, Senior Advisor, Bureau of Public Affairs, U.S. Department of State
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Tue., Nov. 18
5:30 pm*
“Slavery and Africa in Brazilian Public and Popular Memory”
Ana Lucia Araújo, Professor of History at Howard University. The first in a series of “Conversations on Slavery, Memory and Culture: the Making of Contemporary Afro-Brazilian Society.”
Supported by the BU Center for the Humanities, Latin American Studies, and African American Studies.
Location: GSU Terrace Lounge, 775 Commonwealth Ave., 2nd Floor GSU, Boston

Thu., Nov. 20
7:30 pm
“How to be a Black Lesbian Feminist in Ten Easy Steps”
Micia Mosely Ph.D., Comedian and educator. Gender, race, sexuality, class, civil rights are all grist for Dr. Mosely’s comedic mill. Hosted by Women’s, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Program and co-sponsored by the College of Arts and Sciences Academic Enhancement Fund, Office of the Provost Arts Grant / BU Arts Initiative and the African American Studies Program.
Location: SAR102, 635 Commonwealth Ave., Boston

Tue., Dec. 2
5 pm
“Freedom Summer: Yesterday and Today”
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Thu., Dec 11
5-6:30 pm
African American Studies Program Holiday Party
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

Interesting Events on Campus

Wed., Oct. 15
6:30 pm*
“Misremembering Dr. King” - Author reading and signing event at BU Barnes and Noble Bookstore
Jennifer J. Yanco, PhD, Visiting Researcher at the African American Studies Center, Sponsored by the African American Studies Program.
Location: BU Barnes and Noble Bookstore 5th Floor, 660 Beacon St, Boston, MA 02215

November 2014
The Elie Wiesel Center for Judaic Studies at Boston University is pleased to present “Economic Racism in Perspective: Past and Present in the US and Germany,” a series of events celebrating the 50th anniversary of the passage of 1964 Civil Rights Act. Events will be held at BU Hillel House, 213 Bay State Road, Boston