AFRICAN LANGUAGE QUESTIONNAIRE

(to be completed by all applicants)

The African Studies Center at Boston University offers a program of instruction in African languages. Hausa, Xhosa, Zulu, Wolof, Swahili and Pulaar are the regularly offered languages. In addition, the program occasionally has need of consultants or instructors in other languages when research needs and/or funding opportunities permit. Any full-time Boston University graduate student who is an American citizen or permanent resident is entitled to apply for a Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowship through the African Studies Center. Recipients are required to study an African language. For these reasons, it is requested that you provide us with information regarding your experience with and in African languages, your knowledge of the languages, and your African language study needs.

Language Needs

Do you have any background in African language(s)? _____

If so, describe the current level of your competency for each language.?

Are you interested in studying Hausa, Xhosa, Zulu, Wolof, Swahili or Pulaar? at Boston University? _____

If so, which language(s)?

Are you interested in studying other African language at Boston University? _____

If so, which language(s)?

Do you have any suitable instructional materials (e.g. basic textbook, reference, dictionaries, audiotapes, readers, cultural materials) which could be used in learning this language? If so, please describe.

Language Skills

1. What is your first language?
2. What languages do you speak fluently?
3. Which other African and non-African languages do you speak?
4. Have you ever taught a language before? If yes, which language(s) and to whom?
5. If your first language is Hausa, Wolof, Zulu, Xhosa, or Swahili, would you be interested in applying for a paid position as a teaching assistant?
6. If you are fluent in another African language would you be interested in being paid as a language tutor or teacher?

Students and potential instructors who are interested in learning more about the African Language Program at Boston University are invited to direct inquiries to:
