Undergraduate Minor in African Studies
The African Studies Minor is open to all undergraduates who fulfill the following requirements: six courses from three or more disciplines. Four of the six courses must be outside the student major; CAS ID 116 is required of all students. For further information: Dr. Michael DiBlasi (617) 353-7306.

Minor in African Languages and Literatures
The African Languages and Literatures minor is designed to combine language and linguistic study with the study of written literature and oral tradition in the African context. For further information: Dr. Michael DiBlasi (617) 353-7306.

Graduate Certificate in African Studies
The Graduate Certificate in African Studies is available to U.S. and international students who fulfill requirements in African area studies within an existing degree program. The certificate is particularly useful for students enrolled in a professional degree program such as law, management, medicine, or education. Requirements of the program include completing 16 hours of integrated coursework from the AS Core Curriculum and finishing a piece of significant research such as an M.A. thesis, doctoral dissertation, or two substantial research papers. For further information: Dr. Michael DiBlasi, (617 353 7306)
