

Walter Rodney Lecture Series

African Studies Center Fall 2019

232 BAY STATE ROAD, ROOM 505 - 12:15 PM TO 2:00PM

SEPTEMBER

- 16 Darren Kew (U. Mass. Boston)
“After Nigeria’s 2019 Elections: What Implication for Democratic Development, and What Next?”
- 23 Dinah Hannaford (Texas A&M University)
“Foreign Assistants: Development and Care in an African City”
- 30 Séverine Autesserre (Columbia/Barnard)
“On the Frontlines of Peace: The Unlikely People Who Are Getting It Right”

OCTOBER

- 7 Adeline Masquelier (Tulane University)
“Spirited Places: Trees, Schools, and the Borderlands of History in Niger”
- 21 Bryan Trabold (Suffolk University)
“Opposition Journalism: The Weekly Mail and New Nation in Apartheid South Africa”
- 28 Katarzyna Pieprzak (Williams)
“Poems on Mass Housing in North Africa”

NOVEMBER

- 4 Sara Beth Keough (Saginaw Valley State University)
“Water, Life, and Profit: Water Vending in Niamey, Niger”