This page can be added as an icon to your home screen. On the iPhone, this is done by tapping the square with an up arrow and choosing "add to home screen"
The first screen shows you the upcoming events that you have tickets for.

Choosing "view all" will bring up a full monthly calendar, useful if you have a number of games in one month.
Selecting an event (tapping it on your screen) brings you to more detailed info about the tickets you have.

The "select an action" dropdown menu allows you to view or transfer your tickets. This would be useful if you have multiple tickets and only wanted to manage certain tickets.
Selecting each ticket individually or using the select all option will allow you to proceed to the barcode screen.
Viewing the tickets brings up a QR barcode that can be scanned at the turnstile.

If there are multiple tickets for the same event, you can swipe through to the next barcode.

From here, if you have an iPhone you can also add the ticket to your Passbook.
Viewing your tickets on your phone will NOT invalidate your printed tickets. However, once the phone has been scanned for entry, the corresponding printed ticket will NOT work at the door.
Tapping on the small "i" under the seat number (shown in the previous slide) will bring up more detailed information about the event, including the account number and special gate entry.
Selecting "Ticket History" will provide you with more detailed information about the print/transfer/view history of each seat.
This is what the tickets look like in the iPhone's Passbook app.
TRANSFERRING TICKETS
You can transfer tickets as all available tickets or individually, just like on web-based account manager.
Choose the seats you want to transfer or select all and tap "transfer tickets to a friend"
This screen confirms the number of seats you are transferring.
Here, you are given options for who to send the ticket to under "select a recipient" which will preload the addresses that have been used on the full website or you can manually enter an email address.
You can also choose to receive an email reminder if the offer has not been accepted by certain time.

There is also the option to have the price displayed on the forwarded ticket.

You can also choose to receive an email reminder if the offer has not been accepted by certain time.
Once a recipient has been chosen, you can add a personalized message.
Once you have entered and verified all information, select the "agree to terms" option and you can complete the transfer!
