

COM Annual Fund Leadership Giving Societies

The College of Communication thanks the following members of its Annual Fund Leadership Giving Societies. Since launching in 2005, these individuals have donated more than $400,000, helping us address many critical needs and supply our students with the most advanced resources, giving them a competitive edge when they graduate.

We extend our deepest appreciation for those who renewed their support and to those who joined a Leadership Society for the first time.
