

Alzheimer's Disease Center

Spring 2016 Lecture Series

The Role of Sirtuins in Alzheimer's Disease Pathogenesis

Neil W. Kowall, MD

Professor of Neurology and Pathology, Boston University School of Medicine

Director, Boston University Alzheimer's Disease Center

Director, VA New England Geriatric Research Education and Clinical Center

Wednesday, February 3rd, 2016

NOON - 1pm | VA Boston Health Care System |

150 South Huntington Ave, Boston, MA

Basement Conference Room, BD-112L-AB

All BU & VA students, staff and faculty are welcome

Lunch will be provided first come, first served basis

MBTA: Green Line to Heath St

Free Parking: Lot and on Street

Free BU/VA Shuttle: Leaves VA on the 1/2 hour and leaves BMC on the hour

The BU Alzheimer's Disease Center's monthly Lecture Series offers exciting presentations from basic and clinical scientists on key topics in Alzheimer's research.

www.bu.edu/alzresearch

facebook.com/BUmemoryloss

twitter.com/BUmemoryloss