

Please join the American and New England Studies Program for the second meeting of our House and Home in American Culture conversations series.

Margaret Morton, Photographer and Professor at the School of Art,
The Cooper Union, New York City, will present:

FRAGILE DWELLING

Thursday, October 14, 2010

5:30 p.m.

CAS 200 (725 Commonwealth Ave.)

Margaret Morton has published several books on her photographs of the dwellings that homeless individuals assemble in public parks, vacant lots, riverfronts, and beneath the streets of New York City, including The Tunnel: The Underground Homeless of New York City (1995) and Fragile Dwelling (2000). Morton's projects have received numerous awards, and her photographs have been exhibited widely, in both the United States and abroad.

This event is free and open to the public.
Refreshments will be provided!

For further information and questions please contact jloscio@bu.edu, or visit our website, www.bu.edu/amnesp

This series is supported by the Boston University Humanities Foundation and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Image: Margaret Morton, Mac's First House, East River, from Fragile Dwelling, 2000