

AN 327/727 – Islam in Africa

Professor Fallou Ngom

Fall 2018, Tuesdays & Thursdays, 11:00-12:15pm

An in depth examination of Islam and its spread into Africa. This course will familiarize you with the multiple adaptations of Islam found in the African continent across many different cultures and languages, introduce you to the ongoing debates regarding Islam in Africa, and expose you to indigenous literatures from African Muslims, including materials written by enslaved Africans in the Americas.
