

APHASIA COMMUNITY GROUP

Sponsored by Boston University Sargent College
The Aphasia Community Resource Center
www.bu.edu/aphasiacenter

2016 SCHEDULE

PURPOSE:

- To educate the community about aphasia and related disorders
- To provide members and the community with local and national resources
- To offer support and coping strategies
- To provide socialization for persons with aphasia, their families and friends

MEMBERSHIP: The group is open to all:

- Persons with aphasia
- Family members
- Friends
- Professionals

FORMAT:

- Member and Guest Presentations
- Large and Small Group Sessions
- Light Refreshments

WHEN: Saturdays 11:00AM – 2:00PM

- August: NO SESSION
- September 10, 2016
- October 15, 2016
- November 12, 2016
- December 17, 2016

WHERE: 635 Commonwealth Avenue, Room 102, Boston, MA 02215

Parking is available in the Granby parking lot next to Sargent College. Please mention you are attending the Aphasia Community Group and you will get the discounted rate. Please check the website or call the Aphasia Resource Center to confirm each session before attending. Scheduling and weather conditions could cause disruptions.

CONTACTS:

- Jerry Kaplan, Speech-Language Pathologist, BU Sargent College- (617) 353-9687 or jhkaplan@bu.edu
- Elizabeth Hoover, Speech-Language Pathologist, BU Sargent College- (617) 353-8967 or ehoover@bu.edu
- Leslie Caiola, ARC Staff Coordinator- (617) 353-0197 or lesliec@bu.edu