

Serving those who served: Exploring trauma and post traumatic growth in Veterans

About this Seminar

Target audience: Social workers and other social service providers

Content level: Beginner to Intermediate

Date Course Revised: January 2019

Instructor(s) name and bios(s): Sarah Berkoff

Sarah Berkoff's interest in trauma and resilience started during her undergraduate work with teenagers in residential treatment facilities. During her graduate work at Boston University School of Social Work, Sarah began to explore the connection between early childhood trauma and enrollment in the U.S military.

Agenda/Outline:

Course Completion Requirements:

All learners are required to attend the entire workshop and complete an evaluation to receive credit for this workshop. The instructor will hand out a paper evaluation form at the end of the workshop. Attendees will need to turn in evaluation form when they sign out of the workshop to receive credit.

The learner will need to request an ASWB ACE Continuing Education Certificate from Boston University School of Social Work staff. A staff member will confirm attendance and will email a PDF certificate within 30 days of request to the learner.

ACE Approval Statement:

Boston University School of Social Work, 1121, is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved as ACE providers. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. Boston University School of Social Work maintains responsibility for this course. ACE provider approval period: 11/8/2018 – 11/8/2021.
