Memorandum

TO: Members of the Humanities Curriculum Committee
FROM: Peter Law
Sr. Academic Administrator
Undergraduate Academic Program Office
DATE: November 8, 2016
SUBJECT: Meeting on Thursday, November 10, 2016

This is a revised agenda for our discussion on Thursday, November 10, 2016. We will meet at 3:30 PM in CAS 200, 725 Commonwealth Avenue.

The following is an overview of the items up for discussion and review:

1. A proposal from the Department of World Languages & Literatures to establish a minor in Persian Cultural Studies

2. CAS AH 356 E: Modern and Contemporary Art in Paris (a revision of the existing course currently titled “French Art and Architecture” for Spring 2017, offered through the Paris Internship Program)

3. CAS XL 343 / GRS XL 743: Alexander the Great in the East (a new course proposal for Fall 2017)

4. A request from the Department of English for Chair and Professor Maurice Lee to receive full course credit for the team-taught course CAS EN 538/SED EN 538 (Teaching American Literature), following procedure set forth in the CAS “Policy and Guidelines for Collaborative and Team Teaching” (refer to pages 7–9 of the policy)

5. For discussion and feedback only: a proposal from the Core Curriculum to establish a Core Interdisciplinary Minor

6. For discussion, led by Dean Bizup: What should the College’s stance be toward online courses offered under the auspices of CAS (for example, versions of CAS courses delivered online during Summer Term)?
