

Center for English Language & Orientation Programs

2015 SPRING SEMESTER - PROGRAM DATES AND FEES

Programs	Dates	Length	Hours	Tuition	CELOP Application Fee	University Fee	Medical Insurance	Room/Meal Plan*	Personal Expenses*	Total Estimated Expenses*
Intensive EN 020 (1 elective class)	January 21 - April 24	12 weeks	20 hours/week	$6,500	$110	$100	$1,244	$7,120	$1,776	$16,850
Super-Intensive EN 050 (2 elective classes)	January 21 - April 24	12 weeks	25 hours/week	$6,900	$110	$100	$1,244	$7,120	$1,776	$17,250

CELOP offers two, 12-week programs in the Spring Semester.

The Intensive (EN020) program meets for 20 hours per week. The Super-Intensive (EN050) program meets for 25 hours per week.

Each program consists of morning Core classes and afternoon Elective classes.

In a Core class, students develop their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills.

In an Elective class, students choose a specific area of interest, such as TOEFL test preparation.

Weekly Class Schedule

Day/Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
9am - 11:50am	Core Class
11:50am - 1:30pm	Lunch Break
1:30pm - 3:50pm	Elective Class A	Elective Class B	Elective Class A	Elective Class B	No Elective Class

Students in the Intensive (EN020) program take Core class and only one Elective class, either "A" OR "B".

Students in the Super-Intensive (EN050) program take Core class and both Elective classes "A" AND "B".

For more information about our programs, or to apply, please visit our website:

www.bu.edu/celop

Center for English Language & Orientation Programs

Description of Fees

CELOP Application Fee - a non-refundable application processing fee.

University Fee - consists of a $40 Community Services/Program Fee and $60 Student Services Fee charged to all Boston University students.

Medical Insurance - all students are required to have medical insurance. This amount provides medical insurance coverage for the spring and summer semesters.

*Room/M Meal Plan - this amount is based on costs for Boston University housing, living in a shared room (two or more people) in a dormitory-style residence. Depending on the availability of particular residences, some students may be assigned to other accommodations which could cost more. All students living in Boston University housing must have a meal plan. Several plans are offered; this amount is based on unlimited meals each week. Less expensive dining plans are available. This is an estimated expense that is used for immigration (I-20) purposes.

*Personal Expenses - this estimated amount includes costs for books, supplies, and other miscellaneous expenses. Your actual expenses may differ. This is an estimated expense that is used for immigration (I-20) purposes.

Total Estimated Expenses - all fees can change, and may increase, at any time. The Total Estimated Expenses are for immigration (I-20) purposes only.

Application Requirements

All applicants must meet the following application requirements:

Be at least 17 years old.

Be a graduate of high school/secondary school.

Be able to speak, understand, write, and read simple English sentences.

Be able to pay for all tuition and fees by submitting an original Financial/Bank Statement or a valid scholarship/sponsorship financial guarantee letter.

All original Financial/Bank Statements:

Must be written in English.

Must be dated within 6 months of the start of the program.

Must show liquid (cash) funds in a checking or savings account.

Must show funds that match or exceed the Total Estimated Expenses of the program.

Must be signed by a bank official.