2018 Application Guidelines for Blount-Slawson Competition Participants Strings & Piano

Please note that your Blount-Slawson Competition audition can count entirely as your BUTI audition and you do not need to submit any additional materials as a part of your BUTI application.

You may, however, also elect to submit a contrasting work(s) in order to showcase a greater variety of repertoire as outlined in the Audition Requirements on our website for your instrument. To do so, either sign up for a supplemental live audition or upload a supplemental recorded audition in the BUTI application using the instructions below.
