

Conductors applying to the YOUNG ARTISTS CONDUCTING SEMINAR (YACS) should include the following within their admissions application:

- Resume information including education and musical experience
- A brief statement, stating why this program is of value to you, and what you would expect to learn

Optional application upload:

- Video links to your conducting of any type of ensemble

Selected candidates might be contacted for a video or phone interview as part of the application process. Interview may include questions regarding your musical background, general music knowledge, and other related topics. Not all candidates will be asked to interview therefore, it is not a requirement for admission.
