THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prelude
Prelude and Fugue on a theme of Vittoria

Benjamin Britten (1913–1976)

Call to Worship and Greeting

Liturgist: This is the day the Lord has made.
People: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Introit
Northfield

Jeremiah Ingalls (1764–1828)

How long, dear Savior, O how long shall this bright hour delay,
Fly swifter ‘round the wheel of time, and bring the welcome day.

Hymn 103
Immortal, invisible, God only wise

St. Denio

Opening Prayer

Liturgist: You who are Grace, Love, and Power:
To you all hearts are open, all desires, known and from you no secrets are hidden.

People: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may love you more dearly and more worthily give glory to you,

All: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Invitation to the Lord’s Table

Celebrant: All are welcome at the Lord’s table, to be in companionship with him, to repent of sin, and to seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Confession of Sin

All: Merciful God
we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done your will,
we have broken your law,
we have rebelled against your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Celebrant: Hear the good news:
Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God’s love towards us.
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

Exchange of Peace

Celebrant: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ is with you always!

People: And also with you.

All may exchange signs and words of God’s peace.

Hymn 632 Draw us in the Spirit’s tether (stanza 1 only)
Prayer for Illumination (spoken in unison)

Gracious, Loving, Holy God, open our hearts and minds by the power of the Holy Spirit, that as the Scriptures are read and your word proclaimed, we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

Lector: A lesson from the Acts of the Apostles, adapted from the 10th and 11th chapters:

In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian Cohort. He was a devout man who feared God with all his household; he gave alms generously to the people and prayed constantly to God. One afternoon at about three o'clock he had a vision in which he clearly saw an angel of God coming in and saying to him, ‘Cornelius.’ He said, ‘What is it, Lord?’ He answered, ‘Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. Now send men to Joppa for a certain Simon who is called Peter; he is lodging with Simon, a tanner.’ When the angel who spoke to him had left, he called two of his slaves and a devout soldier from the ranks of those who served him, and after telling them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

About noon the next day in Joppa, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat; and while it was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by its four corners. In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air. Then he heard a voice saying, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat.’ But Peter said, ‘By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is profane or unclean.’ The voice said to him again, a second time, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call profane.’ This happened three times, and the thing was suddenly taken up to heaven.

Now while Peter was greatly puzzled about what to make of the vision that he had seen, suddenly the men sent by Cornelius appeared. They were asking for Simon’s house and were standing by the gate. While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, ‘Look, three men are searching for you. Now get up, go down, and go with them without hesitation; for I have sent them.’ So Peter went down to the men and said, ‘I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for your coming?’ They answered, ‘Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear what you have to say.’ So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging.

The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the believers from Joppa accompanied him. The following day they came to Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. Peter went in and found that many had assembled; and he said to them, ‘You yourselves know that it is unlawful for a Jew to associate with or to visit a Gentile; but God has shown me that I should not call anyone profane or unclean. So when I was sent for, I came without objection. Now may I ask why you sent for me?’

Cornelius described his vision and how he came to send for Peter. Then he said, ‘Therefore I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. So now all of us are here in the presence of God to listen to all that the Lord has commanded you to say.’ Then Peter began to speak to them: ‘I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ’ …

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, ‘Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?’ He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Now the apostles and the believers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also accepted the word of God. So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him, saying, ‘Why did you go to uncircumcised men and eat with them?’ Peter described his vision of the sheet with the animals, and how he was sent by the Spirit to Cornelius’ home. Then he said, ‘And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as it had upon us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said, “John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” If then God gave them the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?’ When they heard this, they were silenced. And they praised God, saying, ‘Then God has given even to the Gentiles the repentance that leads to life.’

🎵 Antiphon (sung by all)

For with you is the fountain of life;

in your light do we see light.

Cantor: Bless the LORD, O my soul,
People: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.
Cantor: Bless the LORD, O my soul,
People: and do not forget all his benefits—
Cantor: who forgives all your iniquity,
People: who heals all your diseases,
Cantor: who redeems your life from the Pit,
People: who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,
Cantor: who satisfies you with good as long as you live
People: so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.
Cantor: The LORD works vindication
People: and justice for all who are oppressed.
Cantor: The LORD is merciful and gracious,
People: slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
Cantor: He will not always accuse,
People: nor will he keep his anger forever.
Cantor: He does not deal with us according to our sins,
People: nor repay us according to our iniquities.
Cantor: For as the heavens are high above the earth,
People: so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
Cantor: as far as the east is from the west,
People: so far he removes our transgressions from us. 🎷
Gospel Lesson  Luke 6:43–45, 8:16–18

Lector:  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke, chapter 6, verses 43–45, and chapter 8, verses 16–18:

People:  Glory to you, O Lord.

“No good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit; for each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good person out of the good treasure of the heart produces good, and the evil person out of evil treasure produces evil; for it is out of the abundance of the heart that the mouth speaks.

“No one after lighting a lamp hides it under a jar, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light. For nothing is hidden that will not be disclosed, nor is anything secret that will not become known and come to light. Then pay attention to how you listen; for to those who have, more will be given; and from those who do not have, even what they seem to have will be taken away.”

People:  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Benjamin Britten (1913–1976)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness: and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves:
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving: and into his courts with praise:
be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.
For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting:
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.
Glory be to the Father . . .

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

※ The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord is with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.
In the beginning, the Holy Spirit moved over the face of the waters. You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life. When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast. The Spirit came upon prophets and teachers, anointing them to speak your Word.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, and giving voice to all creation, we praise your name and join the unending hymn:

 mús Sanctus and Benedictus (sung by all) Julian J. Wachner (b. 1969)
Words of Institution

Celebrant: Holy are you, and blessed is the Son Jesus Christ.
At his baptism in the Jordan, the Spirit descended upon him and declared him your beloved Son.
With the Spirit upon him, he turned away the temptations of sin.
The Spirit anointed him to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, and to announce that the time had come when you would save your people.
He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.
When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always.

We remember how, when Jesus sat at supper with his friends, he took bread.
And when he had given thanks,
he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying,
"Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise after supper he took a cup,
And when he had given thanks, he gave the cup to his disciples, saying:
"Drink this, all of you; this is the sign of a new covenant, sealed with my blood, for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Each time you drink this, remember me."

On the day you raised him from the dead
he was recognized by his disciples in the breaking of the bread, and in the power of the Holy Spirit, your Church has continued in the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.
(Sung by all):

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Pour out the Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood and empowered by the gifts of the Spirit.

By the Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, showing forth the fruit of the Spirit until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at the heavenly banquet.

Through the Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your servant Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant: And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Agnus Dei (sung by the choir)

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us your peace.

Distribution of the Elements

Marsh Chapel at Boston University is an interdenominational faith community and all are welcome and invited to participate in Communion today. Healing Prayer Stations are offered at every Sunday Communion. Other invitations regarding Communion are found on the next page of this bulletin.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (in unison)

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of the Holy Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMUNION AT MARSH CHAPEL

Marsh Chapel at Boston University is an interdenominational faith community and all are welcome and invited to participate in Communion today. If you do not feel comfortable receiving the elements of Communion, you may, if you wish, come forward and receive a blessing instead.
Simply let the server know when you approach. If you are unable to come forward, we will come to you with Communion or for a blessing—just raise your hand after the others have finished. We provide both wine (pulpit side) and an alcohol-free grape juice (lectern side). Gluten-free bread is available upon request.

Healing Prayer Stations: Marsh Chapel offers prayer for healing at every Sunday Communion service. If, after partaking of Communion, you are moved to prayer for healing in an area of your life that calls for attention, with the laying on of hands and/or anointing with oil, please join the members of the healing prayer group under the first windows on the pulpit side of the Nave. Please feel free to stay until you are prayed with as the service continues to hold us all in worship.
Welcome to Marsh Chapel

We thank you for joining us this morning for worship, and hope that you have found the Spirit of God in our midst. If you are interested in becoming a member of Marsh Chapel, or have other questions, please feel free to contact any of the Chaplains or Associates listed below.
