

The Thurman Choir: Marsh Chapel's Common Voice

In the spirit of Dean Howard Thurman's visionary ministry of a 'common ground', the Marsh Chapel Thurman Choir is open to any and all members of the Marsh Chapel family who wish to lift their voice in song as a community of common faith. No audition or previous experience is required, and a multi-generational experience is encouraged.

The Thurman Choir leads in worship several times each semester, joining with the Marsh Chapel Choir on festival occasions. In addition to an engaging repertoire, members of the Thurman Choir will learn fundamental vocal and musical skills, including hymn singing, music reading, and a healthy approach to singing. The Thurman Choir is led by Justin Blackwell, Marsh Chapel's Associate Director of Music.

You can signal your interest in membership by attending any of the rehearsals listed below, or emailing us at musicmar@bu.edu. Together with the Inner Strength Gospel Choir and the Marsh Chapel Choir, the Thurman Choir creates an opportunity for all members of our growing community to participate in the vibrant musical and spiritual life of Marsh Chapel.
