Refer to the Core website for images and music used in this course, as well as a regularly updated calendar of announcements, recommended lectures, performances, and film.

Your seminar instructor determines your final grade, based on the following components: participation 20%; seminar papers 50%; midterm exam 10%; final exam 20%

Attendance at lectures and seminar discussions is an important part of the course. Absences from lecture and seminar will be weighed seriously by your section leader, and will bring down your final grade.

The Core Writing Center is available for help throughout the semester. The Core faculty encourage you to make good use of it. Writing Tutors are graduate and undergraduate students who have been trained in grammar and compositional skills and are familiar with the works read in the Core. To make an appointment with a tutor, stop by the Core office, CAS 119, email core@bu.edu, or call 353-5404. Tutoring appointments are held in CAS room 129.

Academic Conduct. All members of Boston University are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty and integrity. We have the same expectations of each other in this course. Seminar leaders take the issue of plagiarism seriously and expect all the work you do in this course to be your own. If you have any questions about what constitutes plagiarism and how it differs from the appropriate use of other people’s work, consult the Academic Conduct Code or your instructor.

All websites consulted for written work must be acknowledged in your papers. Unacknowledged use of material from the Internet will be considered plagiarism and dealt with as such. It is your responsibility to read the relevant pages from the Academic Conduct Code carefully and to know exactly what constitutes plagiarism.
