

Hub & Pub Series – October 2018 meeting

Topic	Teaching a Hub Course with Multiple Areas Faculty will share challenges they are discovering and strategies they are using as they prepare for and teach courses involving two or more Hub areas (e.g. a course that meets the 2+1 rule).
Time/Date	Thursday, October 11 th from 3:30 – 5:00pm
Location	The Hub Office (5th floor of the GSU, 775 Commonwealth Avenue)

Welcome Remarks

- Amanda Urias, Managing Director of the BU Hub

Featured Speaker

- Linda Doerrer, KHC CH 140: The Material World (Scientific Inquiry I, Ethical Reasoning, and Critical Thinking)
  - Associate Director, Kilachand Honors College
  - Associate Professor of Chemistry
  - Associate Professor in Materials Science and Engineering

Micro-talk Presenters

- Douglas Gould, COM CM 518: Creating Video Campaigns (Digital/Multimedia Expression, Teamwork/Collaboration, and Creativity/Innovation)
  - Professor of the Practice, Advertising, School of Communication
- Vesko Garcevic, CAS IR 330: Diplomatic Practice (Global Citizenship & Intercultural Literacy, Research & Information Literacy, and Teamwork/Collaboration)
  - Professor of the Practice, International Relations, Pardee School of Global Studies
- Regina Hansen, MET IS 350: Nature and the Divine in Myth, Literature, and Art (Aesthetic Exploration, Critical Thinking, and Writing Intensive)
  - Master Lecturer, Rhetoric, College of General Studies
  - Faculty Coordinator of the Online Undergraduate Degree Program (UDCP), Metropolitan College