

Hub & Pub Series – March 2019 meeting

Topic	Teaching a Hub Course in Creativity/Innovation and the Individual in Community Faculty will share challenges they are discovering and strategies they are using as they prepare for and teach courses in the areas of Creativity/Innovation and the Individual in Community.
Time/Date	Wednesday, March 20 th from 3:30 – 5:00pm
Location	The Hub Office (5th floor of the GSU, 775 Commonwealth Avenue)

Welcome Remarks

Amanda Urias, M.B.A., Managing Director of the BU Hub

Micro-talk presenters

Sophie Godley, Dr. Ph., MPH, Clinical Assistant Professor of Public Health

KHC PH 103: Seeing Poverty: Understanding and Addressing Poverty in America
Hub areas: The Individual in Community, Social Inquiry 1, Critical Thinking

Blake Sims, M.A., Program Director, Social Innovation – Innovate@BU

Hub CC 162: Innovation for Social Impact
Hub area: Creativity/Innovation

Rachel Spekman, M.B.A, M.A., Program Director, Business Ventures – Innovate@BU

Hub CC 161: The Innovation Pathway: Discovering and Validating Innovative Ideas
Hub area: Creativity/Innovation

Caleb Farny, Ph.D., Senior Lecturer in Mechanical Engineering and Associate Chair for Undergraduate Programs

ENG EK 301: Engineering Mechanics 1
Hub areas: Creativity/Innovation and Critical Thinking