Position at the Consulate General of France in Boston

This internship is an exciting opportunity for students interested in the French Consulate General diplomacy.

The Consulate General internship will help students develop their research skills, organization skills, their drafting skills, their understanding of French politics and French culture including French history. They will be implementing in real public life settings the theory they learn over their undergraduate training, especially in international relations.

Internship description:

- Work within the Cultural Department under the supervision of the Consul General.
- Help with the writing of speeches and general notes for the Consul.
- Conduct research and draft reports.
- Support the Consulate in promoting tourism in France and French culture in general.
- Help on some general administrative tasks like updating contact lists, organizing files, organizing local events.

Required Skills:
Comprehension of French is required. Potential interns should show a strong interest in French culture and a lot of curiosity since he or she will be exposed to French cultural events in Boston as well as political, sociological and scientific events in the area. Interns should be adept at Internet and library research and have strong writing skills. They should be self-motivated, flexible and reliable. Punctuality, attention to detail and a willingness to perform a variety of tasks are expected.