Dear Sir:

I would like to request that a circulation restriction be placed on my dissertation (give title) for a period of ___ years. [State reason for restriction (e.g., planning to publish)]. I have discussed this with my major professor and we both agree. I understand that the dissertation will be microfilmed by ProQuest Information and Learning, but that sales of it will be restricted to the author only until the restriction is lifted. The abstract will be published in Dissertation Abstracts International. One electronic copy of the dissertation will be available only at the Library of Congress. I will notify you of my new address if I move before the restriction period has expired.

Sincerely,

SAMPLE LETTER REQUESTING PERMISSION TO USE COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL IN A DOCTORAL DISSERTATION

[Use letterhead stationery or return address]

[Date]

[Name and address of addressee]

Dear _____:

[Optional beginning sentence: This letter will confirm our recent telephone conversation.] I am completing a doctoral dissertation at Boston University entitled “_____.” I would like your permission to reprint in my dissertation excerpts from the following:

[Insert full citation and description of the original work.]

The excerpts to be reproduced are: [insert detailed explanation or attach copy].

The requested permission extends to any future revisions and editions of my dissertation, including non-exclusive world rights in all languages, and to the prospective publication of my dissertation by ProQuest Information and Learning (formerly Bell & Howell Information and Learning; formerly UMI Company). These rights will in no way restrict republication of the material in any other form by you or by others authorized by you. Your signing of this letter will also confirm that you own (or your company owns) the copyright to the above-described material.

If these arrangements meet with your approval, please sign this letter where indicated below and return it to me in the enclosed return envelope. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

[Your name and signature]
