*Medical insurance is required for all students and their dependents. Medical insurance coverage extends from January 1, 2016 through August 22, 2016. Students are automatically enrolled in the Boston University Student BASIC Plan. Coverage takes effect once registration has been processed. A more complete listing of the University's tuition and fees, as well as explanations of certain fees, or to waive the medical insurance, please see the Student Accounting Services website at <http://www.bu.edu/studentaccountingservices/your-bill/tuition-fees/#MED>

A student enrolled in three to four-and-a-half courses (12-18 credits) will be considered full-time and will be charged full tuition and fees.

*Sports Pass

The Sports Pass will automatically be charged to your student account if you are a full-time Charles River Campus student. The Sports Pass will allow you admission to 18 home men's ice hockey and 18 home women's ice hockey games as well as 11 home men's basketball and 11 home women's basketball games (a $350 value). You may deduct the Sports Pass charge from the balance you remit if you list the cancellation on your invoice stub.

For individualized information regarding your sports pass, or to cancel your sports pass, visit the Student Link. Please note that only Boston University students with a Kerberos password will be able to view personal information on the Student Link. To obtain a Kerberos password, please contact the Information Technology Help Center at the Mugar Library, 771 Commonwealth Avenue or IT Help Center at 533 Commonwealth Avenue, Tel: 617-353-4357.

If this is your first semester as a graduate student at Boston University your payment deadline is February 1, 2016. Payment for the first semester must be received by close of business (5 p.m. EDT) on the day of the deadline. Students cannot pay tuition and fees until after they register during Orientation.
