

The Marion F. Gislason Award

For Excellence in the Field of Leadership Development

The Marion Gislason Award was established at Boston University by Marion's husband, Marne Obernauer, her family, friends, and colleagues, in memory of Marion Gislason, her passion for human development, and her instrumental role in the creation and success of the Executive Development Roundtable.

Award Criteria: The recipient will be a person who is well-known among peers for the excellence of his/her work in advancing the state of knowledge or the state of the art of practice; The recipient will also possess those qualities of humility, generosity, and concern for others that were valued and modeled by Marion Gislason.

Award Recipients

Morgan McCall, 1997

David Thomas, 1998

Dan Goleman, 1999

Mike Lombardo, 2000

Henry Mintzberg, 2001

Ed Schein, 2002

Frances Hesselbein, 2003

Chris Argyris, 2004

Warren Bennis, 2005

Bob Kegan & Lisa Lahey, 2006

Doug Ready, 2008

Peter Browning, 2009

Ingar Skaug, 2010

Robert E. Quinn, 2011

Marshall Goldsmith, 2012

Kathy E. Kram, 2013

John Kotter, 2014

EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT ROUNDTABLE

EDRT is a dynamic, peer-based learning forum and research center open to all organizations that view executive development as a strategic resource to produce value-added results for their businesses.

Boston University School of Management • 595 Commonwealth Avenue • Boston, MA 02215
Phone: 617-353-2031 • Fax: 617-353-4878 • Email: edrt@bu.edu • Website: edrt.org • bu.edu/edrt

BOSTON UNIVERSITY