

Boston University | Student Elections Commission

Official Statement

April 26, 2013

The student Elections Commission received the following complaint from a source who wishes to remain anonymous at 11:01 PM on April 25, 2013, assigned reference number three:

On April 25, 2013, number of BU Ignition stickers was found stuck on facility table of Towers Dorm Common Room.

After consideration of the complaint, the SEC issued the following ruling:

Based on the evidence, the SEC finds that the BU Ignition has not violated Elections Code. Even though the BU Ignition stickers are evidently stuck on facility table, there were no evidences to support the fact that BU Ignition slate members were the ones to have done the action.
