Boston University Educational Resource Center

Language Help at Boston University

Listed below are a variety of resources available to you as a student at BU. Answer the following questions to discover which resources might be the best fit for you.

If you would like to discuss ways to improve your study skills, time management skills, or would just like to talk one-on-one with someone, please make an appointment with one of the professional staff at the ERC.

1. Have you visited your Professor/TA/TF?
   - Professors, TA's and TF's are your best resource for your course
   - See your syllabus for Professor and TF/TA office hours and contact information
2. Are you interested in working with classmates?
   - Study groups are a great way for students to pool their knowledge, practice vocabulary and grammar, review class topics and points of confusion collectively
3. Are you registered for ERC Language Link groups?
   - These informal conversation groups are led by native speakers; there are 12 total languages offered
   - For additional information, and to register, visit: www.bu.edu/erc/link/
4. Have you been to the Howard Thurman Center?
   - They have Rosetta Stone, in 14 languages, free for BU students to use
   - For additional information, call 617-353-4745 or visit www.bu.edu/thurman/programs/rosetta-stone
5. Are you an ESL Student?
   - Please visit CELOP for information about their programs and services
   - 890 Commonwealth Avenue, 2nd Floor, Boston, MA 02215
   - http://www.bu.edu/celop/about/celop/
6. Have you been to International Programs?
   - To find out more information about their language and liberal arts programs, visit in person at 888 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA 02215 or online: http://www.bu.edu/abroad/
7. Contact Academic Support in the Languages Department:
   - Contact the CAS Language Advisor: OR the Language Resource Coordinator:

     Paula Hennessey
     CAS 105
     725 Comm. Ave
     617-353-2400/phenn@bu.edu

     Joe Breines
     718 Comm. Ave., Office 506B
     617-353-6200
     jbreines@bu.edu