Math Help at Boston University

Listed below are a variety of resources available to you as a student at BU. Answer the following questions to discover which resources might be the best fit for you.

If you would like to discuss ways to improve your study skills, time management skills, or would just like to talk one-on-one with someone, please make an appointment with one of the professional staff at the ERC.

1. Have you visited your Professor/TA/TF?

- Professors, TA's and TF's are your best resource for your course
- See your syllabus for Professor and TF/TA office hours and contact information
- If you cannot make it to their office hours because of a schedule conflict, try contacting them directly to arrange a different time to meet

2. Have you heard of the Math Tutoring Room?

- The Math Tutoring Room is located in Room 144 at 111 Cummington Street
- Schedules are available online at <http://www.bu.edu/math/undergraduate/resources/tutoring-room-schedule/>

3. Have you attended Math Help?

- Professor Snyder runs math help Tuesdays from 7pm to 10pm in the Rich Hall Cinema Room starting January 24th
- Be sure to bring whatever course materials you are working on with you

4. Are you interested in working with classmates?

- Get together with other students in your class to arrange a study group
- Study groups are a great way for students to pool their knowledge, review class topics and points of confusion collectively

5. Contact Academic Support in the Math Department
