

The Department of Political Science, the Department of English, and the Center for the Study of Europe present:

The Break Up of Britain?

A Panel Discussion on the Scottish Referendum

Monday, September 22, 12 - 1:30 PM

The Scottish referendum has been a death or near death experience for one of Europe's oldest countries. The outcome has huge implications for not only the UK but other countries such as Spain with separatist movements, for the EU and US foreign policy. Join us for a discussion of the election results with Professors Erik Goldstein, Graham Wilson, and James Winn.

Lunch is provided. RSVP to edamrien@bu.edu.
