

Boston University presents

CELEBRATING A MYSTIC AND REFORMER:

Saint Theresa of Ávila

(1515-2015)

Monday, November 30

Terrace Lounge
George Sherman Union, 2nd floor
Boston University
775 Commonwealth Avenue

4:00-5:00 "Was Saint Theresa a Feminist?"
A Lecture by Barbara Mujica,
Georgetown University

5:15-6:00 Round-table Discussion: Barbara
Mujica, Elizabeth Rhodes (Boston College),
Rady Roldán Figueroa (Boston University),
Luis Girón (Harvard University)

6:00-6:30 A reading and discussion of Barbara Mujica's historical novel
Sister Theresa (2007)

6:30-7:15 Reception

8:00 "Melodies of the Soul, Then and Now (A Musical Homage to Saint Theresa of Ávila, 1515-2015)"

Music by Mompou, Pärt, Ligeti and Chaillou

Readings of Texts by Saint Theresa of Ávila and Saint John of the Cross

Camila Parias, soprano
Moisés Fernández Vila, piano

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Marsh Chapel, Boston University
735 Commonwealth Avenue

