

The Center for the Study of Europe at Boston University presents:

Reconstructing Democracy, Bringing Citizens Back In A Conversation with José Ignacio Torreblanca

Join us for a conversation with José Ignacio Torreblanca, Head of European Council on Foreign Relations (ECFR) Madrid Office and Senior Policy Fellow at ECFR in its Europe Power program. Sofia Perez interviews Torreblanca on the subject of his 2014 book: Who Runs Europe? Reconstructing Democracy, Bringing Citizens Back In. José Ignacio Torreblanca has been a Fulbright Scholar, a lecturer at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and a researcher at the European University Institute in Florence. In March 2015, he was announced the winner of the prestigious Salvador de Madariaga award for journalism in Spain. He was also ranked amongst the ten most influential new intellectuals in Spain and Latin America by Foreign Policy en español in May 2011. Lunch available. Open to BU community and others with a research interest in the topic. RSVP: edamrien@bu.edu.

This event takes place as part of EU Futures, a series of conversations exploring the emerging future in Europe. EU Futures project is supported by a Getting to Know Europe Grant from the European Commission Delegation in Washington, DC.

Wednesday, April 20th, 2016 — 12:00 to 2:00 pm
Pardee School of Global Studies, 121 Bay State Road, 1st Floor

Boston University Pardee School of Global Studies
Center for the Study of Europe

