

Monday, October 17, 2016
12 noon – 2 p.m.

Educational Bridge Project and the Boston University Center for the Study of Europe present Lunch Talk:

Eilts Conference Room
154 Bay State Road, 2 floor, room 203

URBANISM IN MUSIC: Pacific 231 by Arthur Honegger

Kyriell Palaeologue, 27 years old, musician, composer and music theorist.
Born in Russia, graduated from Tchaikovsky Institute of Arts in Chelyabinsk.
Arrived in US in 2014, now resides in Boston.

Kyriell will talk about Urbanism in the arts and in music in particular.

He will concentrate on Pacific 231 by Arthur Honegger, an outstanding example of music of the turn of the 20th century and a piece of music marked by Urbanist tendencies.