Please join us for a reading and conversation with Portuguese writer João Tordo and Brazilian writer Paulo Scott.

João Tordo was born in 1975 in Lisboa. His novels are published in different countries, including France, Italy, Germany, Brazil or Hungary, among them: 'O Paraíso Segundo Lars D.' (2015), 'O Luto de Elias Gro' (2015), 'Biografia Involuntária dos Amantes' (2014), 'O Ano Sabático' (2013).'

Paulo Scott was born in 1966 in Porto Alegre, in southern Brazil, and grew up in a working class neighbourhood. At university, Scott was an active member of the student political movement and was also involved in Brazil's re-democratisation process. For ten years he taught law at university in Porto Alegre. He has now published four books of fiction and four of poetry. He also translates from English.

Co-sponsored by the Minor in Portuguese and Brazilian Cultural Studies, the Virginia Sapiro Academic Enhancement Fund, the Latin American Studies Program, and the Center for the Study of Europe. Supported in part by a Getting to Know Europe grant from the European Commission Delegation in Washington, DC.
