Directory Information Restriction—must be completed once per academic year. Annual FERPA information valid September 1, 2017–August 31, 2018.

Use this form to manage public access to your data at Boston University.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) protects the privacy of your education records and restricts disclosure of personal information from your education records, except as authorized by law. For information on Boston University’s FERPA policy, please refer to the Registrar’s website at bu.edu/reg/ferpa.

The University has designated certain types of personally identifiable information as “Directory Information.” A list of this information is to the right. Unless restricted, Boston University may disclose any of the items of Directory Information without your consent.

Boston University does not provide student lists outside the University for purposes of marketing.

Any and all data that you restrict to the right will not be released outside the University.

If you wish to restrict the release of your Directory Information, you may do so by completing the information to the right, or by visiting the Office of the University Registrar.

Check to restrict:

☐ Local Address and BU Directory Phone Number:
If restricted, this information will not be listed in the BU directory.

☐ Email Directory Lookup: If restricted, your email address will not be listed in the BU directory.

☐ I acknowledge that I have received and read the Evergreen Auditing Conduct Form valid September 1, 2017–August 31, 2018.

Auditing courses at Boston University is a privilege that Evergreen is honored to extend to the community. In order to maintain a productive learning environment, we ask that students auditing through Evergreen adhere to the following standards of conduct:

- Participation in a course is contingent upon the permission of the instructor. An instructor may decline or revoke permission to audit a course at any time at his or her discretion. In that event, the student must cease their attendance in the class and may be issued a refund.
- Please arrive promptly for class and restrict entering and exiting the classroom to emergencies only.
- Please silence all electronic devices. (e.g.: cell phones)
- Fulfill the following basic responsibilities:
  - Respecting the rights of others.
  - Respecting the highest standards of academic conduct.
  - Respecting the property of others, and the property, equipment, facilities, and programs of the University.
  - Refraining from actions that endanger the health, safety, or welfare of any member of the University community or its guests.
  - Complying with the policies and rules of the University as well as with federal, state, and local laws.

Evergreen students can audit classes—at the discretion of the course instructor or department chair—in the following schools, colleges, and programs at Boston University:

- BU Summer Term (excludes lab courses and schools which do not accept auditors)
- CAS College of Arts & Sciences
- CFA College of Fine Arts
- COM College of Communication
- GRS Graduate School of Arts & Sciences
- MET Metropolitan College
- Questrom School of Business
- SAR College of Health & Rehabilitation Sciences (Sargent College)
- SED School of Education
- SHA School of Hospitality Administration
- SPH School of Public Health (with permission of instructor)
- SSW School of Social Work
- STH School of Theology

The following schools and colleges DO NOT ACCEPT auditors through Evergreen:

- CGS College of General Studies
- CPE Center for Professional Education
- ENG College of Engineering
- GMS Graduate Medical Sciences
- KHC Kilachand Honors College
- LAW School of Law
- MED School of Medicine
- PDP Physical Education, Recreation & Dance
- SDM Henry M. Goldman School of Dental Medicine
- Any film production course
- All courses in Food & Wine
- All creative writing courses
- All online classes
- All non-credit certificate courses

I understand that failure to comply with the standards of conduct described above may result in expulsion from the class and may limit future auditing privileges.
