TRANSFER STUDENT CHECKLIST

To Apply

- Note all applicable deadlines (bu.edu/finaid/apply/incoming/deadlines/)
- Submit the 2017-2018 FAFSA. (bu.edu/finaid/apply/profile-fafsa/)
- Submit the 2017-2018 CSS PROFILE. (bu.edu/finaid/apply/profile-fafsa/)
- If your parents do not share the same household, your noncustodial parent must also submit the 2017-2018 Noncustodial Parent PROFILE. (bu.edu/finaid/apply/special-circumstances/parents-not-married/) If you believe it will be impossible to provide this information, please submit a Noncustodial PROFILE Waiver Request (bu.edu/finaid/forms-calculators/forms/application-forms/) with the appropriate documentation.
- Regularly check your Applicant Link and email for requests for additional information.

After You Receive Your Financial Aid Decision

- If possible, attend your school/college Open House and meet with a BU Financial Assistance representative or contact BU Financial Assistance with questions.
- Create a plan for financing your education by previewing the Four Steps to Managing the Cost of Your Education. (bu.edu/finaid/types-of-aid/loans/credit-based-loans/undergraduate/four-steps/)

Within Two Weeks of Your Admission Decision

- Acknowledge your Financial Aid Award online. (bu.edu/finaid/apply/incoming/next-steps/)
- Submit your Enrollment Deposit.

After Paying Your Deposit

- Submit Income Verification (bu.edu/finaid/apply/incoming/income-verification-incoming/) in order to confirm your tentative financial aid award.
- Payment of fall semester charges is due in early August. Payment of spring semester charges is due in mid-December.
- Updated links to the monthly payment plan and credit-based loan information and applications will be posted on our website (bu.edu/finaid/types-of-aid/loans/credit-based-loans/undergraduate/) in the summer.

We want to do all we can to take your particular circumstances (bu.edu/finaid/apply/special-circumstances/) into consideration. We encourage you to contact our office (bu.edu/finaid/contact-us/) with any questions about your financial aid.