"WHO CONTROLS MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE?"

Join us for our monthly Global Economic Governance Initiative (GEGI) Luncheon Seminar Series with Rebecca Ray on April 2.

In the last few years, new multilateral development banks like the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank and the New Development Bank have emerged and sent ripples throughout the world of development finance. Observers disagree about how to characterize these new institutions. Is the AIIB truly independent from China? How new is the New Development Bank’s governance style, actually? Dr. Ray will explore how power is shared at MDBs across the world — global, regional, and sub-regional MDBs — and how these new banks fit in.
