

PEACE CORPS CELEBRATION

MARISSA RIVERA CHINA, WANZHOU

I taught listening and oral English at Chongqing Three Gorges University. As a teacher at the university, I also founded a hiking club, held women's club gatherings, and hosted student-led cooking classes at my apartment. My experience in the Peace Corps helped me develop a passion for increasing access to higher education, particularly among the global community. My current work on the Global Leadership team in the Development department at BU is very much in line with these interests.

Posing with two of my students on a hiking club outing.

Wanzhou District. I spent my term of service in Wanzhou, a district of the Chongqing Municipality. This is a picture I took of the city from one of the hills behind my apartment building. The body of water visible in the middle right of the photo is the Yangtze River.