

The Dreyfus Affair on Film

COMME UN JUIF EN FRANCE / BEING JEWISH IN FRANCE

BOSTON PREMIERE

Yves Jeuland's documentary explores the history of Jews in France from Revolutionary cries of Viva la France in Yiddish and French to the explosive Dreyfus Affair, through Vichy's murderous betrayal to the immigration of Jews from Arab countries, to recent arson attacks on synagogues. (France, 2007)

THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA

Winner of three Academy Awards – Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor and Best Screenplay – this critically-acclaimed box office smash stars Paul Muni as Emile Zola, the novelist and provocateur who proved Alfred Dreyfus's most passionate defender. (USA, 1937)

PRISONER OF HONOR

Richard Dreyfuss stars as Lt. Col. Georges Picquart, head of French military intelligence and Alfred Dreyfus's unlikely champion. Uncovering evidence of a conspiracy and subsequent cover-up, Picquart put his life and career on the line to free an innocent man. (USA, 1991)
