Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9:30-11:00
Office hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 12:30-1:30 pm, Elie Wiesel Center (147 Bay State Road), or by appointment.

The object of this course is to provide basic understanding of modern Israeli politics, culture and identity through lectures, discussions and projects. Among the topics to be explored are: Israel's political system and society; ethnic relations in Israel; the Arab minorities in the Jewish state; is there a unique Israeli culture?; Israeli Occupation and settlement projects; the struggle for Israel's identity. A broad array of genres and modes of expression - not only academic writings, but also literature, popular music, film, documentaries and art - will be incorporated into our discussion.

Learning Goals:

By the end of the course, you should be able to:

- Define and describe major events in the history of modern Israel
- Define and describe Israel's political regime (political parties, municipal and regional administration, etc.)
- Define, describe and appraise the major analytical terms used in our course
- Integrate course data into a coherent narrative(s) of current Israeli identity(ies)

Grading and Assignments:

- Attendance is mandatory
- Readings' assignments – [35%]
- Class participation (including the staged peace conference) [15%]
- Classroom presentation [(bonus) 15%]
- Final paper [50% (or 35% if the presentation was good)]

Cell phones and laptops policy:

Cell phones: Use of cell phones in class (for talking, texting, reading/writing email, or any other purpose) is prohibited. Kindly keep your cell phones turned off and stowed away in class. However, if you need to leave your cell phone on because of an ongoing emergency situation, please speak to me at the start of class.

Laptops: Kindly keep your laptop turned off and stowed away in class. Using laptop computers in class is distracting to me and other students, in part because the temptation to take “just a second” to check email or web updates is hard to resist.
